Palm Beach Libertarians Work To Save Taxpayers Money

Libertarians come out against property tax hike

Boynton Beach, Fla -- The Libertarian Party of Palm Beach County (LP Palm Beach) is officially opposing the Palm Beach County School Board's proposal to quadruple the $25 per $100,000 of taxable property value to $100 per $100,000 of taxable property value. This would create a cost of $400 for a $400,000 property, an increase of $300 each year. The proposal would not allow funds to go to charter schools.

Chair of LP Palm Beach, Karl Dickey, said this morning, "It is another attempt to extort additional money out of county workers and retirees. From all sources, the School Board's budget is \$3 billion. I think we can find $150 million of wasteful administrative costs before forcing all Palm Beach County residents to fork over their hard earned wages. This additional tax will grossly adverse the poor in our county who pay rent. We oppose this property tax proposal and encourage all Palm Beach County voters to vote NO this November."
